DETAILED ACTION

Election

This Office Action is in response to applicant's election filed on April 20, 2006.

Applicant's comments pertaining to the previous restriction requirement are acknowledged. The restriction requirement has been withdrawn. Claims 11-17 are pending.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 11, 12, 16, and 17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Myers (U.S. Patent No. 6,960,175) and further in view of Nordt et al (U.S. Patent No. D521,644). Myers discloses an orthopedic leg brace comprising an upper brace (8), a lower brace (9) with housing (10) holding a mechanical pivotal knee joint assembly, and straps (12, 14). The Myers reference does not teach the straps (12, 14) being at least partly provided with friction-reducing means on at least the side to be brought into contact with the relevant limb part, as recited. Nordt et al discloses a support brace comprising a strap with means which reduce the friction with the skin. Therefore it would have been obvious to one of skilled in the art during the time of the invention to modify the Myers's straps (12, 14) to include means which reduce the friction with the skin as taught by Nordt et al as such would the skin to move as freely as possible without causing undesired shifting displacement. With regards to the number of freely rotatable elements, as recited, it would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to recognize such structure as providing the identical function specified in the claim in substantially the same way, and produces substantially the same results as the corresponding element disclosed in the specification.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 13-15 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
